O R D E R:

Sri N.Lakshmi Naik, DCTO, was appointed as ACTO through direct recruitment and joined in the CT Dept. as ACTO on 17.02.2001 and has passed the last departmental test i.e. LF Audit Paper.IV in the month of September, 2006. Accordingly, in the reference 3rd read above, permission was accorded to the CCT, Hyderabad to refix the date of commencement of his probation in the cadre of ACTO in Zone.IV of Kurnool Division as 28.07.2004.

2. In the reference 4th read above, Sri N.Lakshmi Naik, DCTO among others has stated that he has joined as ACTO on 17.02.2001 and he has to pass all the departmental tests by 16.02.2004 for declaration of probation by normal period, he has passed last departmental test i.e., Local Fund Audit Paper.IV in the month of September, 2006, due to delay in conducting the departmental tests by the APPSC, he has further stated that the technical delay in passing last departmental test is 5 months only, earlier Government have considered several similar cases and relaxed the rule 16(h) on different grounds, and he has requested the Government to consider his request and declare his probation from the date of joining i.e., 17.02.2001 in relaxation of rule 16(h) of APS & SS Rules, 1996.

3. Government after careful examination, consider that the schedule of notification for departmental exam was issued by the APPSC on 10.04.2006 (instead of Jan, 2006) with a delay of 3 months; the departmental exam was conducted on 11.09.2006, (instead of May, 2006) with a delay of 4 months and results were published in the month of April, 2007 instead of last Thursday of July, 2006 i.e. 27.07.2006; with a delay of 9 months from the scheduled period. The delay in passing the departmental test by the individual is not due to his fault, due to conducting of departmental tests and publication of results by the APPSC, it cannot be attributed to the individual.
